WILL THE CITY ENTER THE RACKETEERING BUSINESS?

The word racket is a slang expression coined in the United States, and is defined as: A particular line of business or profit seeking, especially an improper or dishonest line, often an illegal activity and a racketeer is one engaged therein.

Will the people of Bay St. Louis allow its City to engage in racketeering? It is up to you. The question of whether or not this will be tolerated is to be decided strictly by the citizens of Bay St. Louis. The City Council by a two-to-one vote at their meeting on Monday afternoon, passed ordinance number 118, which is published for the first time in the Echo, this week. Under this ordinance, if it is finally adopted, a privilege tax will be levied on the operation of slot machines and other mechanical gambling devices.

It is said that the need of additional revenues for the City prompts this action. We cannot believe that the additional amount of $9000.00, which is anticipated under this ordinance will solve the fiscal affairs of the City of Bay St. Louis.

We had heard for some length of time, that this ordinance would be introduced; yet we had hoped and believed that our progressive young Mayor, who has the confidence of his people, would not listen to soft talk, by smooth talkers and be led to offer its adoption.

We have always been of liberal thought and truthfully we are not opposed to the operation of slot machines, nor are we opposed to having the illegal business which is carried on in Bay St. Louis open and above board. We are considered a resort town, and of course much of this is expected. However we are definitely opposed to the paying of graft and bribery to officers charged with the enforcement of the law, by men engaged in illegal activities.

No one could ever convince us that Mayor Carver and his fellow Commissioners are not fundamentally honest. They are three men in public office, whom we believe, money could not touch, and we think Mr. Carver and Mr. Bourgeois are sincere in their belief that this tax will aid the City.

On the other hand, we do not believe they have ever given much thought to the position in which they are placing the City. By their vote, if this ordinance is finally adopted, the City of Bay St. Louis will join hands in the flourishing racketeering business now in operation in the City of Bay St. Louis for a paltry $9000.00 per year of blood money. It will lend its aid to offer protection to a group of men whose income from these machines probably exceeds a quarter of a million dollars per year, secured through corrupting law enforcement officers. It becomes a party to the payment of graft and bribery to those charged with the enforcement of the laws.

Do you want your City to be a party to this? We most certainly don't. Under the law it is necessary that a petition be circulated and at least 20 per cent of the qualified voters must sign it to prevent the adoption of the ordinance. When and if a petition is presented, with the required number of names, it shall be considered by the Commission Council and then an election is called on the question.

It is up to the citizens of Bay St. Louis to give their answer to this question.

Soil Conservation News

By: J. L. Bishop,
Soil Conservationist

Last Thursday, January 13th, the annual meeting of the Mississippi Association of Mississippi District Soil Conservation Commissioners met in their regular annual meeting in the Heidelberg Hotel, Jackson, Mississippi, according to Otto Rester, Chairman of the Board of Commissioners of Hancock County. Mr. Rester, Member of the Resolutions Committee of the State Association, was accompanied on this trip by Mr. Fitzhugh Lee and Mr. A. E. Smith, Commissioners from Hancock County.

These men state that Mr. Leon J. McDonald, Assistant State Conservationist, Soil Conservation Service, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, was the outstanding speaker of the day. Among other things Mr. McDonald said, "You Commissioners and the cooperators with whom you are working are helping to save and improve your land for the benefit of people, because the chief harvest of the land is man himself. From the soil comes the quality of his bone and muscle. What he is, what he does, and how he does it are determined by the acres he tends. His courage, his ambition, his very way of thinking grow out of the furrows at his feet as truly as the cotton, the clover, and the wheat he grows."

Another outstanding speaker of the day was Mr. Clifford B. Luttrell, Agricultural Economist for the Memphis Branch of the Federal Reserve Bank, who stated that his studies of a typical farm in DeSoto County showed that the farm was earning $1,400 a year after six years of a complete soil and water conservation program. He said he used pre-war prices for farm products to arrive at the total. He also stated, "If one-third of the farms in an average Mississippi County put on a similar program, more than a million dollars in new money would be in that county. That is equal to a new industry in the county with a payroll of 480 persons, each receiving $40 a week."

St. Stanislaus Cagers Lose To St. Martin; Rock Juniors Win Easily

The Rockchaw Cagers got off to a slow start in their Tuesday night game with St. Martin and were never able to quite catch up, losing a thriller 31-30.

The Rocks trailed 20-9 at the half, and as the fourth quarter started were still behind by 11 points. Suddenly the locals caught fire and were rapidly closing the gap when the game ended.

The Rock Juniors easily defeated their opponents 33-22. The next game is Friday night, January 21, between the Rocks and GCMA.

THE NEW FUTURAMICS

FUTURAMIC—the most glamorous word in motor cars now applies to two great lines of Oldsmobiles. Not only the newly styled Futuramic '48'—but also a brand new Futuramic '76' with a new '49' Fisher Body that's lower, wider and offers greater visibility. And this year, Oldsmobile has struck a new balance of power with two great engines for these Futuramic cars. The new "Big Six" Engine in the '76' is more powerful than ever. And the new "88" is powered by the revolutionary "Rocket" Engine. It's a high-compression, valve-in-head eight—an engineering marvel that steps up horsepower to 135, yet actually cuts down on gas costs. Words can't describe it. You've got to drive it yourself for Oldsmobile's "NEW THRILL!"

Registrants Must Advise Local Boards Of Change of Address

Selective Service registrants are required by law to keep their local boards informed when they change their address after they become 26 years of age, as well as before.

Colonel J. M. Patton, Jr., gave the foregoing reminder in discussing what he said was a general misunderstanding as to responsibility of registrants who are beyond the age liability for service.

"Men cannot be inducted after they reach 26 under the Selective Service Act of 1948," Colonel Patton said, "but that does not mean they are relieved from obligation to keep their local boards informed as to a new address, where they may be reached by mail, in other words."

Colonel Patton quoted from Section 15 of the Selective Service Act of 1948 as follows:

"It shall be the duty of every registrant to keep his local board informed as to his current address and changes in status as required by such rules and regulations as may be described by the President."

The following regulations issued by the President are applicable, Colonel Patton said:

"It shall be the duty of each registrant to keep his local board advised at all times of the address where mail will reach him. The mailing of any order, notice, or blank form by the local board to a registrant at the address last reported by him to the local board shall constitute notice to him of the contents of the communication, whether he actually receives it or not."

"The wording is clear," Colonel Patton said, "and plainly indicates the intent of Congress—although a man can't be drafted after he is 26, his responsibilities under the Act aren't over when he does reach that age."

Colonel Patton added that he had reminded Mississippi's local boards of the Act's provisions and of the regulations.

St. Stanislaus Boxing Team Defeat Demonstration 5-3 Trounce Brooklyn 9-1

The St. Stanislaus Rockaway boxers, last year State champions, tucked a win under their belts in their first two matches of the season by defeating Demonstration of Hattiesburg and Brooklyn High.

The Demonstration bouts showed a short card with only 8 bouts, but the Brooklyn matches gave a full card of ten bouts.

Although the 9-1 score for the Rocks over Brooklyn seemed one-sided most of the scraps were closer and hotter than the score indicated.

A real oddity happened in the Brooklyn match between Guthrie of the Rocks and Lopez of Brooklyn. In a hot exchange of blows, Lopez was knocked to the floor but was not hurt. Referee August Scasfidi made Lopez stay on his knees to take a count of nine.

Lopez, of Cuban extraction and understanding no English, allowed himself to be counted out with 9 seconds of the second round remaining. Guthrie was declared the winner, but after explanation the bout was continued. Guthrie won handily.

COUNTY AGENT
NOTES

Treat to control cattle grubs where there is infection and this has not already been done, advises L. C. Murphree, Extension entomologist.

Cattle grubs do damage by weakening the animal, reducing milk production 10 to 25 percent, reducing gain in weight of beef cattle and damaging sides by cutting holes in the cow's back.

Control is by rubbing one and one-fourth percent derris dust in the holes cut by grubs. Sprinkle the dust from a fruit jar with 10 or 12 holes punched in the top.

A second application should be made 30 days after the first, and a third dusting should be made 30 days after the second.

Treatment is simple, inexpensive and profitable.

Orchard Work

A number of orchard jobs of pruning, spraying and general clean-up should be done at this time of year, according to Chesley Hines, Extension horticulturist.

Early winter pruning is recommended, especially for grapes to prevent loss of sap or "bleeding." Grapes require more severe pruning than other fruits to prevent overbearing, to maintain vigor of the vines and to insure regular production of high quality fruit.

Peach, plum, apple and other tree fruits need moderate pruning each year to train to proper shape, develop strong frame work, maintain and properly distribute the bearing wood and to help control insect pests and diseases. Further information about pruning can be obtained from county agents.

San Jose scale is the most serious pest affecting fruit trees in Mississippi. Control the pest by spraying with oil emulsion at the rate of one part of the prepared oil emulsion to 20 parts of water.

Spray trees during the dormant season, preferably after pruning. Do not use oil emulsion which has become separated due to freezing or other causes. It should have a creamy appearance throughout.

Spray trees only when temperature is above 40 degrees and cover the entire surface thoroughly.

Clean up the orchard by removing and burning material pruned from trees, "mummified" fruits and other material harboring insects and diseases.

Buying Chicks

Chicks from Mississippi hatcheries operating under the supervision of the National Poultry Improvement Plan can be bought with assurance of quality, according to Paul Young, Extension Poultryman. Only these hatcheries can use the prefix, "U. S." and Plan emblem.

A copy of the 1949 Mississippi Chick Buyers Guide, listing Plan hatcheries, can be obtained from any county or home demonstration agent.

Plan chicks, produced in Mississippi, are not exposed to dangers common to distant shipments. Chicks that travel a long way may be subject to extreme cold and heat, may come in contact with diseased birds or may be too long without feed or water.

Plan safe by buying from Plan hatcheries near home.

Serious Accident Avoided at Beach And Beach

What might have been a very serious accident was avoided by the presence of mind of Mrs. E. M. Heath, Sr., on last Sunday afternoon when she was taking her three grandchildren, Wynn, Kathy and Edward M. Heath, III, and Nancy Gray, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gray, for a ride on Beach Boulevard. Mrs. Heath was driving north and as she approached the intersection of Highway 90 and the beach she saw a car coming on the highway driving east at a terrific rate of speed. She realized that she could not cross the highway without being struck so she quickly applied her brakes and the sudden stop threw the four children forward. Edward Heath, III, was the most severely hurt when his head struck the glove compartment. He suffered cuts of his lip from his teeth. The other children were bruised and skinned in places about the face. Mrs. Heath suffered from shock. All were given first aid at the Kings Daughters Hospital.

HORMEL GIRLS TO VISIT BAY ST. LOUIS MONDAY, JAN. 24TH

More than sixty smartly-uniformed girls of the Hormel Girls Corps—former Waves, Spars and Marines—will offer valuable prizes to every family in Bay St. Louis on Monday, January 24, it was learned today.

The Girls Corps, now touring, features a drum and bugle corps, a marching unit, and a radio band and chorus. The group has appeared in nearly every section of the country. The girls also have their own radio show—the only one of its kind—for half an hour every Saturday morning at ten o'clock on the Mutual Network.

On Monday, January 24, between 10:00 and 11:00 o'clock the girls will visit the food stores here. In the stores they will give away coupons good for whole hams, quarter hams and popular grocery items. Any customer who has registered for the event with her grocery and visits her grocer's store while the girls are there, can win a prize.

It was emphasized that no purchase of any sort is required to get a prize. Simply by registering now at your favorite grocers you become eligible for the prizes to be given away by the girls.

It was also learned that any ex-GI girl with musical or acting talent is eligible for membership in the Corps—this includes a chance to appear on their network radio show. Any Bay St. Louis girls interested in joining the Corps can get full information from Geo. A. Hormel & Co., Austin, Minnesota.

Complete details about the many valuable prizes to be given away—and how you can get one of them—will be announced soon. Meanwhile Bay St. Louis grocers are urging their customers to come in now and register for the event. Many grocers here are planning special sales while the girls are visiting in the stores.
